

Scholarships

March 4, 2008

A. Doris Bank Henries Scholarship-Criteria-Financial need, Academic achievement, Citizenship qualities. Applications are available in the guidance department and the deadline to apply is March 12, 2008.

Any student who is in 11th grade is eligible for the Princeton University Poetry Prize. Applicants may submit up to 3 poems with name, address, email address, telephone number and high school on each poem. Submission must be post marked by March 21, 2008. Additional information is available in the guidance department.

Italian American Celebration & Parade Committee –Columbus Scholarship-Criteria-Italian Heritage, senior, ranked in the top 30% of graduation class. Deadline is April 9, 2008. Applications are available in the guidance department.

Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship- financial need, academic achievement, community involvement, essay. Applications are available in the guidance department and the deadline to apply is April 15, 2008.

Civitan International Scholarship-based on scholastic achievement, community service, leadership, personal character, potential and financial need. Applications are available in the guidance department and the deadline to apply is April 15, 2008.

Middletown Rotary Service Above Self Scholarship Award- Criteria: Main objective is service- a solid record of demonstrated commitment to the concept of Service Above Self, an academic record of 3.0 GPA and above, demonstrated financial need - $100,000.00 or less, communicate a positive attitude and sincere motivation, acceptance to a college/university of the '08-'09 academic year. Applications must be turned into the guidance department by April 4th.

South Congregational Church of Middletown is offering a $400.00 scholarship-Essay "One person can make a difference in the world" Applications are available in the guidance department and the deadline to apply is March 10, 2008.